DETAIL OF ACTIVITIES CARRIED ON BY IQAC DURING THE SESSION 2010-11

Inauguration of the session:- The academic session (2010-2011) was formally inaugurated on 21st August, 2010 with the recitation of sacred path of 'Shri Sukhmani Sahib' to seeking the blessings of the almighty. Thereafter, orientation was given to the students on B.Ed. course. This ended with the 'Ardas' to the almighty for the prosperous and smooth journey of the session.

HOUSE SYSTEM

There are four houses for B.Ed. in the College. The motive of each house is to provide the students with the opportunities for self-expression, inculcating leadership qualities in them, helping students to shoulder responsibilities and making them understand the concept of co-operation and team spirit. The four houses are:-

- Ambedkar House
- Tagore House
- Radhakrishnan House
- Dyanand House

Morning Assembly:- The College commences with morning assembly every day where students and teachers get an opportunity to give brief talk on education, religion and morality.

- Prayer:- Students recite the prayer 'Deh Shiva Var Mohe Ehe' and National Anthem with full devotion and respect.

- Thought of the day:- One of the students presents the thought of the day and gives its interpretation. The thought is already written on the board to display and updated daily.
- Headlines of the day:- To make students aware of their surroundings, headlines of daily news are written on the board as well as read in the morning assembly by one of the students. Besides, the above activities, the students are also made aware of the important days by holding discussion on them.

Talent Search Program:- The first attempt to unveil the latent talent of the new students of B.Ed. was made through the Talent Search Program organized from 20th and 21st September, 2011. Various literary, cultural, heritage, theatrical, fine arts and musical items were arranged over these two days.
